

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Job title: Highly Specialist Clinical Psychologist, Principal Level

	ESSENTIAL	DESIRABLE	HOW TESTED
Training and qualifications	The Graduate Basis for Registration (further to completion of an honours degree in psychology accredited by the British Psychological Society, or, in the case of courses that are not accredited or where the first degree is not in psychology, by completion of the Society's Qualifying examination, or completion of a Society accredited Conversion Course). Satisfactory completion of a British Psychological Society accredited Doctoral Level postgraduate professional training course in clinical psychology (the Doctorate in Clinical Psychology, or its equivalent for those trained prior to 1996), the completion of which includes the study of models of psychopathology, psychometric and neuropsychological assessment, two or more distinct psychological therapies and lifespan developmental psychology. Registered with the HCPC. Eligibility for entry onto the Register of Chartered Psychologists.	Post-doctoral training in one or more highly specialist areas of psychological practice.	Evidence of examination results and professional qualifications.
Experience	Assessed experience of working as a qualified clinical psychologist post qualification, with extensive experience at the Senior (Band 8a) level. Experience of highly specialist psychological assessment and individual and group based treatment of clients across the full range of care settings, including primary and secondary/ specialist care and inpatient/residential, outpatient and community team settings. Experience of working with a wide variety of	Experience of the application of clinical psychology in different cultural contexts. Experience of working within a multicultural framework. Experience of working therapeutically with 'difficult to treat' clients. Experience of working in and managing psychologists in an acute setting.	Interview/ application form/ references (in the case of new appointees)

	client groups, with clients of all ages across the lifespan and of wide-ranging presenting problems that reflect the full spectrum of clinical complexity and severity. Experience of teaching, training and/or supervision. Relevant post-qualification experience, and formal training in supervision, enabling the post holder to independently supervise clinical psychology trainees in accordance with relevant criteria adopted by local University Clinical Psychology Training Course criteria Experience of exercising full clinical responsibility for the psychological care and treatment of referred clients, and of working within a multidisciplinary context wherein carries responsibility for the psychological aspects of a multidisciplinary care plan. Experience of representing psychology within a multidisciplinary context.	.	Assessed by interview/ appraisal review, by review of the post-holder's supervision and CPD records and by references (in the case of existing appointees).
Knowledge and skills	Highly developed theoretical and practical knowledge of the field of clinical psychology, consistent with doctoral level professional training and further post qualification study, training and significant supervised experience as a qualified psychologist. Skills in the use of highly complex methods of psychological assessment commensurate with doctoral level training, including specialist clinical interviewing, behavioural observation, complex psychometric testing and specialist neuropsychological testing. Able to use psychometric tests and psychological equipment in accordance with standardised timing, stimulus presentation and response monitoring requirements. Highly developed skills, commensurate with doctoral level training and post qualification training and experience, in the formulation of highly complex problems from a psychological perspective and in the implementation of highly specialist psychological therapies, interventions and management techniques that are appropriate for use with highly complex presenting problems. Able to deliver established/evidenced based psychological therapy to fidelity. Highly developed interpersonal and	Highly developed knowledge of the theory and practice of specialised psychological therapies in specific 'difficult to treat' groups (e.g. personality disorder, challenging behaviour, dual diagnoses, people with additional disabilities etc). Highly developed knowledge of the theory and practice of highly specialised psychological therapies and assessment methodologies. Current driving licence and car/motorbike owner	Interview/ application form/ references (in the case of new appointees); assessment/ review at annual (or as necessary more frequent) appraisal.

	communication skills (written and verbal) including the ability to empathically, sensitively and effectively communicate clinical and condition related information to clients, their families, carers and professional colleagues (within and outside the NHS) that is extremely complicated or technical; extremely sensitive and potentially distressing to the recipient; or that is extremely contentious or challenging. When communicating with patients, carers and colleagues, has the high level interpersonal skills necessary to obtain and convey highly complex, sensitive or contentious information in emotionally charged and extremely emotive settings, in a manner that addresses and overcomes psychological resistance, hostility, antagonism, and problems of motivation and engagement, as well as barriers to understanding arising from cognitive, cultural or linguistic factors. Ability to respond safely to physical aggression and to promote personal safety and the safety of others, drawing on training in de-escalation and breakaway where provided. Skills in providing consultation and advice from a psychological perspective to members of other professional and non-professional groups. Doctoral level knowledge of research methodology, research design and complex, multivariate data analysis as practiced within the clinical fields of psychology. Ability to provide plan, organise and provide teaching and training on relevant psychological topics, using a variety of complex multi-media materials suitable for presentations within public, professional and academic settings. Awareness and understanding of the differential needs of people from black and minority ethnic groups and of the service issues arising within a multicultural urban area. Knowledge of relevant legislation and DoH policy and implementation guidelines in relation to mental health in general and the client group with which this post is concerned Evidence of continuing professional development consistent with expected standards of the British Psychological Society and relevant subdivisions (Division of Clinical Psychology, Division of Counselling Psychology).
--	---	--	--

	Familiarity with the ethical and professional standards expected of Clinical Psychologists as laid down in the collated BPS 'Code of Conduct, Ethical Principles and Guidelines' (1998).
Personal	Ability to interact effectively with staff from all disciplines. Ability to interact and to build and sustain relationships with people with mental health problems and associated disabilities. Is a 'team player' and has demonstrated ability to work and deliver to team and organisational objectives Ability to maintain a high degree of professionalism, and to reflect on and manage own emotions and those of others, when faced by highly distressing material, problems and circumstances (e.g. when dealing with family breakdown, sexual abuse) on a frequent basis. Ability to maintain a high degree of professionalism, and to reflect on and manage own emotions and those of others, when faced by challenging behaviour, including frequent verbal abuse and occasional threatened physical abuse. Ability to identify and to provide and promote appropriate means of support to carers and staff exposed to highly distressing situations and severely challenging behaviour. Ability to work independently, reliably, consistently and with initiative in circumstances where has discretion to work within defined team/Trust policies, service principles, professional codes of practice and other appropriate parameters and to determine how objectives agreed with manager are best achieved. Adaptable and able to work flexibly when required (e.g. in the light of changing service priorities). Capacity for tolerating frustration, change and high levels of demand with an ability to work effectively under pressure. Ability to attend and concentrate in an intense and sustained manner on a frequent basis when using specialist and complex methods of psychological assessment and treatment, or when completing research activity.	Personal experience of mental health problems.	Interview/ application form/ references (in the case of new appointees); assessment/ review at annual (or as necessary more frequent) appraisal.

	Capacity to sit in constrained positions for extended periods of time on a frequent basis during the completion of client assessment and therapy. Commitment to the involvement of service users and carers on the development and delivery of mental health and other care services. Willingness to travel between sites within the Trust as required.
Other	Ability to accept and use supervision appropriately and effectively. Awareness and understanding of the purpose and mechanisms of clinical governance and an ability to employ such mechanisms to maintain and improve standards of clinical practice. Commitment to working within a multicultural framework.		Interview/ application form/ references (in the case of new appointees); assessment/ review at annual (or as necessary more frequent) appraisal.