

PERSON SPECIFICATIONJOB TITLE: Clinical Psychiatric Pharmacist,

ATTRIBUTES	ESSENTIAL	DESIRABLE	HOW IDENTIFIED
TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS	MPharm or equivalent Registration as a pharmacist with the General Pharmaceutical Council (GPhC) Willingness to undertake post registration qualifications	Postgraduate clinical qualification Membership of the Royal Pharmaceutical Society	Application form / Interview
KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE	Demonstrates own CPD record / or documented CPD portfolio Evidence of confidence in the clinical arena	Good clinical knowledge skills	Application form / Interview
SKILLS	Good interpersonal skills Excellent communication skills – written and oral Confident and assertive when dealing with other professionals Demonstrates ability to organise and prioritise workload Demonstrates ability to motivate self and others Demonstrates ability to work in and lead a team Effective customer service skills – able to work to meet the needs of customers of the department and to meet the standards of the Trust Code of Conduct at all times English Language competency to a level able to communicate with different levels of staff, patients and carers Basic computer, keyboard and mouse skills ILETS level 7 across all domains for overseas pharmacists whose training was not conducted in the English language	Good presentation skills Demonstrates competence in supervising staff Recognised computer qualification eg EDCL or CLAIT	Application form / Interview
PERSONAL QUALITIES	Highly motivated. Innovative and receptive to new ideas, with a positive attitude and responsive to change' An ability to use initiative Empathy with mental illness and ability to cope with emotionally disturbing situations and case histories Calm, non-judgemental attitude to the		Application form / Interview

	client group Ability to cope with difficult and challenging situations and surroundings and an ability to maintain concentration despite interruptions in a busy environment Good time keeping and work attendance but with a flexible approach Commitment to provision of out-of-hours service
OTHER		Full, valid UK driving licence	Application form

Prepared by : Nigel Barnes
Designation : Chief Pharmacist
Date : February 2021