

Person Specification

Job Title: Clinical Research Facility (CRF) Education and Training Practitioner

Attributes	Essential	Desirable
QUALIFICATIONS	A thorough understanding of the clinical trial process. Graduate (health related studies) Plus further training and/or experience to post graduate diploma level via: Appropriate teaching and education qualification or experience Good Clinical Practice (GCP) certificate	Evidence of Masters (level 7) study
KNOWLEDGE	Knowledge of different methods and styles for teaching and learning. Understanding of training programme development including the generation of learning outcomes. Knowledge of Clinical Trials Management, including early phase research. Current knowledge of professional regulatory body requirements and national policy. Microsoft office – Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Access, Outlook.	Understanding of UKCRF Network and NWCRF Alliance.
TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE	Experience of teaching and supervising Experience of having worked across professional and organisational boundaries Understanding of all aspects of research governance and related	Practical experience of facilitating change

	legislation and inspection requirements (e.g. MHRA, HTA, JACIE). Experience of the governance and approval systems within the NHS for clinical studies.
SKILLS AND ABILITIES	Evidence of ability to work with different groups of staff and learners. Involvement in the planning, implementation and evaluation education programmes. Evidence of organisational and time management skills. Evidence of ability to work under pressure and to meet deadlines. Ability to work without supervision and use own initiative. Ability to work flexibly and manage competing priorities.
ATTRIBUTES	Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal. Excellent interpersonal skills able to engage and build effective relationships with people from a wide range of personal and professional backgrounds. Evidence of being a role model in education and training. Consistently high attention to detail and quality of work. Adaptable to meet differing learning styles/ preferences. Willingness to work across organisational and professional boundaries.	Ability to write evidence-based reports. Demonstrates the ability and knowledge on how to undertake audit, associated evaluation, action planning and feedback to relevant staff and learners.

OTHERS	Willingness to work flexibly across sites of Manchester Clinical Research Facility (MCRF). Willingness to travel to sites of the NWCRF Alliance. Demonstrate ability to meet the Trust values.
----------------------	---	--