Values and Behaviours

Ashford and St. Peter's Hospitals NHS
NHS Foundation Trust

Patients First

	Exemplary 4= acts as a role model	Essential 3 = always demonstrates 2 = sometimes demonstrates	Unacceptable 1= does not demonstrate
Care	Always finding ways to make a difference for the benefit of others	Ensuring that basic needs are always met	Ignoring patients who need help – the standard you walk past is the standard you accept
Compassion	Making everyone feel special – knowing your patients well and treating them as individuals	Putting yourself in others' shoes – you could be the only word of kindness that person receives all day	Not being aware of others' needs or feelings
Communication	Adjusting your communication style to fit the person or the purpose	Introducing yourself, listening, explaining clearly what is happening and making sure that you have been understood	Making little effort to explain situations, creating anxiety and confusion
Humility	Using what our patients and others tell us to make our care the best it can be	Apologising and being open when things have gone wrong	Arrogance – assuming we have all the answers and not listening to our patients

Passion for Excellence

	Exemplary 4=acts as a role model	Essential 3 = always demonstrates 2 = sometimes demonstrates	Unacceptable 1= does not demonstrate
Positivity	Sharing good news and positive stories, seeing and inspiring the best in others	Striving to be the best you can	Spreading negativity, or having a "can't do" attitude
Insight	Stopping, looking and listening – being mindful of your environment	Having an in depth understanding of your day to day practices and the impact they have on others	Not being aware of impact on others
Initiative	Finding and seizing opportunities to go the extra mile without being asked	Taking a proactive approach, and prioritising	Being passive and demonstrating a lack of attention to detail
Innovation	Being bold, ambitious and creative and challenging the norm	Seeking out new ideas and finding ways to put them into practice	Accepting average standards or refusing to move from the status quo

Developed by staff through the Trust Wall and through conversation in Autumn 2013

Personal Responsibility

	Exemplary 4= acts as a role model	Essential 3 = always demonstrates 2 = sometimes demonstrates	Unacceptable 1 = does not demonstrate
Commitment	Equipping yourself with the skills, knowledge and wellbeing required to deliver your best	Performing your duties to the best of your ability and always being punctual and prepared	Taking little interest in doing a good job
Self-awareness	Leading by example and taking responsibility for your actions	Treating people as you would like to be treated, remembering that the little things often make the biggest difference	Looking for excuses or undermining others
Open-mindedness	Being objective and providing, seeking and valuing regular constructive feedback	Continuously listening, learning and improving	Showing little interest in improvement or being dismissive of others' ideas or feedback
Courage	Not being afraid to challenge poor behaviour and inspiring courage in others	Believing in yourself and your contribution, and having the confidence to speak up and speak the truth	Not being willing to trust others, or avoiding difficult issues

Pride in our Team

	Exemplary 4=acts as a role model	Essential 3 = always demonstrates 2 = sometimes demonstrates	Unacceptable 1= does not demonstrate
Constructiveness	Supporting, inspiring, mentoring, coaching, celebrating, championing and motivating	Treating one another with dignity, intelligence and respect	Shouting, taking an aggressive tone, or finger-pointing
Selflessness	Taking on tasks, beyond expectation, to achieve team or organisational goals	In your work, prioritising the needs of your patients, teams and organisation ahead of your own	Showing evident self-interest to the detriment of the team or organisation, or lack of flexibility
Collaboration	Helping others to see that they can achieve more together than can be achieved alone	Building positive relationships based on listening and sharing information, knowledge, skills, as well as workload, to further team and organisational goals	Refusing to work with others effectively – withholding information, or failing to listen to or acknowledge others' views
Integrity	Always being open and honest, setting realistic expectations, and consistently demonstrating your values	Being honest and delivering what you promise or making others aware if you are unable to deliver	Being dishonest or biased, or actions not matching words

VALUES BASED BEHAVIOURS

The Values Based Behaviours above describe the standards of behaviour the Trust supports and expects from all staff, and these are used to assess and develop staff through all aspects of their career with the Trust, from recruitment, through induction, appraisal and development.

- c) not intentionally or recklessly interfere with or misuse anything provided in the interests of health safety or welfare

You are required to familiarise yourself with the details of the Trust's Health and Safety Policies posted on the Intranet at <http://trustnet/documents/menu3.htm> .A department policy which will cover your usual place of work is available through your head of department. There are a number of health and safety training sessions which will be mandatory for you to attend depending on your type of work.

MANDATORY TRAINING

All staff have a responsibility to ensure that they are up to date on essential knowledge and skills related to their sphere of work. Some areas of training are common to all staff, such as Health & Safety, Safeguarding and Information Governance. Staff must ensure that they attend Mandatory Training sessions as required.

NHS CONSTITUTION

The NHS commits:

- To provide all staff with clear roles and responsibilities and rewarding jobs for teams and individuals that make a difference to patients, their families and carers and communities.
- To provide all staff with personal development, access to appropriate training for their jobs and line management support to succeed.
- To provide support and opportunities for staff to maintain their health, well-being and safety.
- To engage staff in decisions that affect them and the services they provide, individually, through representative organisations and through local partnership working arrangements. All staff will be empowered to put forward ways to deliver better and safer services for patients and their families.

Staff responsibilities:

- You have a duty to accept professional accountability and maintain the standards of professional practice as set by the appropriate regulatory body applicable to your profession or role.
- You have a duty to take reasonable care of health and safety at work for you, your team and others, and to co-operate with employers to ensure compliance with health and safety requirements.
- You have a duty to act in accordance with the express and implied terms of your contract of employment.
- You have a duty not to discriminate against patients or staff and to adhere to equal opportunities and equality and human rights legislation.
- You have a duty to protect the confidentiality of personal information that you hold unless to do so would put anyone at risk of significant harm.
- You have a duty to be honest and truthful in applying for a job and in carrying out that job.

QUALITY AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The Trust, as a public organisation is committed to acting with honesty, with integrity and in an open way. We are working together to achieve the highest levels of compliance with risk management via the NHS Litigation Authority (NHS LA) and Clinical Negligence Scheme for Trusts (CNST) for maternity services. You are expected to become familiar with these standards as they relate to your work and further details are available from your manager.

You must ensure your actions help to maintain quality and reduce risk. This involves accepting individual responsibility for meeting required standards, and for following quality and safety processes and procedures. These include national requirements set out by the Healthcare Commission, Trust policies, the Trust's Standards for Practice and Care, local Codes of Practice and local service or departmental standards.
(<http://trustnet/documents/Standards%20for%20Practice%20and%20Care.doc>)

It is expected that you understand and comply with current emergency resuscitation techniques (where appropriate), infection control procedures, and fire regulation procedures.

- Risk & health & safety policies are available at <http://trustnet/documents/menu3.htm>;
- Patient care policies are available at <http://trustnet/documentss/menu8.htm>;
- Fire policy is available at <http://trustnet.asph.nhs.uk/documents/document306.htm>;
- Control of infection policies is available at <http://trustnet/documents/menu7.htm>.
- All other relevant policies can be found at <http://trustnet/documents/menu.html>

WHISTLE-BLOWING (FREEDOM TO SPEAK UP)

All employees working in the NHS have a contractual right, and a responsibility, to raise genuine concerns they have with their employer about malpractice, patient safety, financial impropriety or any other serious risks they consider to be in the public interest. Details of when and how concerns may properly be raised within or outside the Trust are available in the Trust's Whistle-blowing Policy which you can access on the intranet at:
http://www.ashfordstpeters.org.uk/attachments/1276\_Whistle%20Blowing%20Policy.pdf

The Trust's policy on whistle-blowing enables everyone to raise any concerns they have about any malpractice at an early stage and in the right way.

The Trust welcomes your genuine concerns and is committed to dealing responsibly, openly and professionally with them. It is only with the help of our staff that the Trust can deliver a safe service and protect the interests of patients and staff. If you are worried, we would rather you raised the matter when it is just a concern, rather than wait for proof.

We hope that you will be able to raise concerns with your manager or Head of Service. However, we recognise that this may be difficult at times and the policy enables you to raise a matter directly with the Trust Freedom to Speak Up Guardian and the designated Non-Executive Director. But you can approach any member of the Trust Board.

Your concerns will be taken seriously and investigated. We also give you a guarantee that if you raise concerns responsibly, we will endeavour to protect you against victimisation.

Further information is available on the Trust Intranet at: <http://trustnet/departments/speakup/>

REQUIREMENT FOR FLEXIBILITY IN AN EMERGENCY SITUATION

In the event that the Trust is affected by an emergency situation (including but not limited to a flu pandemic or a pandemic of any other disease or illness), whether relating to its staff and/or patients, you agree that the Trust may require you to:

- (a) Carry out additional and/or alternative duties to those contained in your job description; and/or
- (b) Without prejudice to the other terms of your employment, perform duties (including any additional and/or alternative duties as mentioned above) at any other location where NHS services are provided

SAFEGUARDING

All Trust employees have a responsibility to take appropriate action if they believe that a child or vulnerable adult is in need of services or in need of protection and they must be committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults. Everyone is responsible for accessing the relevant level of training and following the Trust's local and SSCB's Child Protection and Safeguarding procedures.

Information on Child Protection is available at:

<http://trustnet/docsdata/paed/index20.htm>

Information on the Abuse or Suspected Abuse of Vulnerable Adults is at:

http://www.ashfordstpeters.org.uk/attachments/723\_Abuse%20or%20suspected%20abuse%20of%20vulnerable%20adults.pdf

The Trust complies with the requirements of the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and the requirement to report safeguarding issues to the Disclosure and Barring Service. All staff required to have a DBS disclosure for their post will undergo a recheck every three years. Employees must cooperate with the renewal process and submit their DBS applications promptly when requested.
